COQUITLAM, BC (September 20, 2016) – Musical Mornings is a series of five salon-style concerts hosted by internationally acclaimed and celebrated pianists Elizabeth and Marcel Bergmann. The morning begins with coffee, tea and treats followed by a 75-minute classical concert led by the Bergmann Duo and featuring world-class artists. This is the fifth Musical Mornings series at the Evergreen, which is sure to delight and enthrall audiences.

Recognized in the press as “piano duo extraordinaire having keyboard skills of the first order with impeccable musicianship”, Elizabeth and Marcel Bergmann will take you on an extensive repertoire ranging from Beatles to Bach to Tango and more. It’s a new spin on Musical Mornings this season - and one you won’t want to miss!

Beethoven and the Beatles with Mark Ferris, violin

October 5, 2016

What do Beethoven and the Beatles have in common? Find out with Vancouver Opera Orchestra concert master and member of the Yaletown String Quartet, Mark Ferris as he joins the Bergmann’s in this diverse programme ranging from Beethoven to some of the songs of the world’s most famous pop group.

Blue Autumn with Beth Root Sandvoss, cello

November 16, 2016

Marcel and Elizabeth are joined by Calgary cellist, Beth Root Sandvoss to perform a programme that will feature Marcel Bergmann’s Blue Autumn, a piece especially written for and commissioned by Beth in 2006. They will also include some favourites of the cello repertoire highlighting the beautiful singing quality of the lower string instrument.

From Bach to Brubeck with Rod Thomas Squance, percussion February 8, 2017

This concert features music for piano and mallets starting out with a Bach cello suite transcribed for marimba. Over the years, Marcel and Rod have worked on many projects and have developed numerous different combinations and arrangements of their own. The artists will present an eclectic mix of music from some of their own compositions to pieces from the jazz and popular repertoire.

Three's a Crowd... not! with Sarah Hagen March 29, 2017

Sarah Hagen returns to join the Bergmann Duo in a programme from 1 to 6 hands. The trio will present an entertaining array of repertoire that in addition to their talents as chamber musicians, features their many acrobatic skills as they maneuver their way through a complicated choreography with up to six hands on one keyboard. Be prepared to have fun listening and watching!

L'histoire du Tango with Paolo Bertolussi, flute April 19, 2017

Be prepared for some hot and fiery music with tango being the focal point of this programme. In addition, the Bergmann's and flute virtuoso Paolo Bertoloussi will explore some other dance inspired works for flute and piano. This energetic programme will feature works by composers such Piazzolla, Prokofiev, Poulenc and more.

Sponsored by: Cobs Bread & Paradise Coffee

All shows are at 10:30am with a pre-reception at 10:00am.

Tickets are $22 General, $15 Student | $85 series subscription
